You guys have everything you need on the situation in Coutts, right?

I think so for now

Could you keep me updated on the stuff with the collision downtown

Will do

But I have no information at the moment

So I just walked the entire Wellington street protest area and there was nothing there but the regular protest. No incident of any note. I spoke to some police who said their radios weee buzzing but that's all. <https://t.co/AatH0krFmO>

It might be nothing?

We've asked rcmp/others for info ASAP

Ottawa police say there was an incident at the convoy protest in front of Parliament.
